

Living with diabetes?

Get vaccinated against hepatitis B

The CDC* recommends vaccination against hepatitis B for unvaccinated adults with diabetes who are 19 to 59 years old.

Talk to your pharmacist about hepatitis B vaccination today.

*Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

©2017 GSK group of companies or its licensor.
Printed in USA. 827601R0 November 2017